ARRESTED AND RELEASED.—George Peverill, James T. Smith and Isiah Parker, prominent Free Methodists of this city, appeared at the intersection of King and Royal streets last night and improvised a puppet out of a dry goods box, after which they began singing and making other demonstrations. Lieut. Smith under orders, approached the trio and told them to desist, as their proceedings would soon block up the street and create noise and disorder. They paid no attention to his request and continued singing whereupon they were taken in custody. The three sang the entire way to the station house, and upon being placed in an upstairs room wouldn't deposit any collateral for their appearance to-day and began singing at the top of their voices, each, it is said, on different keys and different hymns. Their singing could be heard for two squares, and it was kept up for over an hour until the patience of the police became exhausted and they were told that should they continue their boisterous proceedings they would be looked up. This had the desired effect, and comparative quiet subsequently reigned. This morning they were arraigned in the police court before Justice Thompson, and upon being examined they signified their intention of repeating last night's proceedings at pleasure, and were fined $5 each. Mr. Peverill, speaking for the party, informed the Justice that they paid no fines, and they were accordingly held. The case created much interest, the city being divided in opinion as to the legality of the action of the Justice. It will be remembered that in the early part of the week Mr. Peverill was arraigned, charged by a saloon keeper and others with attempting to injure their business and with blocking up the streets. The accused was then told that, as a professing Christian, he should have no inclination to break any reasonable law of the land; that it was his privilege to preach on the wharves, hills, commons, or in any place save public thoroughfares. He was dismissed with an admonition that on that occasion, as were others who had been arraigned with him. They were also told that any man who stood in front of a licensed place of business, abused the proprietor or undertook to keep people from entering therein, were amenable to law. They remained in custody for a few hours this morning, when, through their attorney, Mr. A. W. Armstrong, they swore out a writ of habeas corpus and were brought before Judge Norton, of the Corporation Court, who dismissed the three, deciding "that the law does not forbid preaching on the streets, provided the preaching is conducted in an orderly manner; also that the crowd listening to such preaching must also be orderly; that it is unlawful to block up the pavement or street, so that persons and vehicles cannot freely and easily pass; also that it is unlawful to assemble and conduct such meetings as in any way to interfere with or disturb any other religious meetings or churches; also that it is unlawful to use any words of cursing, swearing or to be insulting to others; that it is also unlawful to so conduct the preaching or assembling as in any manner to injure another's business." The accused are doubtless well meaning people, though the correctness of many of their claims is justly questioned. The language used by them on Sunday afternoons in the street is often harsh and intemperate, and calculated to produce bad blood in those who differ with them on theological questions. Their conduct last night in remaining in the station house all night when they could have been released on collateral probably shows they had the account of Paul and Silas in their heads.

About ten or eleven years ago Rev. Mr. Michael, Samuel English and George Peverill were fined for blocking up the corner of King and Fairfax streets by holding an open-air meeting. On a previous occasion Mr. Michael, who read extracts from a book purporting to expose Freemasonry, it is said, announced that copies of the book could be obtained from him for 25 cents a piece, and the question was then asked if he were not amenable to the law for offering to sell books without a license.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Henry Dalingerfield, of this city, spent last Sunday at Culpeper Courthouse.
 Mr. A. G. Uhler, who has for so many years and so acceptably filled the office of secretary of Mount Vernon Chapter, No. 14, Royal Arch Masons, of this city, tendered his resignation of that office last night. To Chapter accepted the resignation after having adopted resolutions of regret, and Companion K. Kemper was appointed secretary for the unexpired term.

We regret to announce that Mr. Charles H. Whittington, who has been in the employ of the railroad company at Manassas for the past 25 years, first as operator and for the last 15 years as agent, has been transferred to Remington. Charles was regarded as a fixture and one of the old landmarks. He was ever obliging and courteous, and his loss will be sincerely felt by our business men. His successor is Mr. R. D. Johnson, who is spoken of as a highly efficient railroad man.—Manassas Gazette

Mrs. Jas. E. Alexander and Mr. F. A. Oakley left here this evening for Staunton, to represent the Woman's Missionary Society of the M. E. Church South, which convenes for a week's session on Monday.

Miss Mohr, a most estimable young lady of Philadelphia, who has been visiting the Messrs. King on South St. Asaph street, returned home this evening accompanied by Miss Charlie King and Miss Janie Hurlish.

Miss Katie Kagan, after a pleasant visit to the Messrs. Harlow, has returned to her home in Gordonsville, accompanied by Miss Lillie Harlow.

PRINCE WILLIAM COAL.—The Bull Run Coal and Coal Development Company, of Prince William county, have begun operations at the mine near Kingsley Mills, three miles from Haymarket station, and the coal under test is said by an old employee of the Cumberland mines to be fully equal to that product and without a superior for black-smithing and steam producing purposes. Mr. Albert Fletcher, of Warrenton, is the president of this company; Mr. George A. Hurlish, of Haymarket, Prince William county, is the general manager, and Mr. Wm. E. Galace, of Fanguier, is treasurer. The stock has advanced during the past ten days from $2.50 per share to $10, and has all been sold. Mr. Hurlish, the manager, was in the city to-day in search of a larger steam boiler, and the work of development will be pushed forward with every encouragement for success. The gentlemen in charge of this enterprise are all well known, practical and responsible business men, and no pains or labor will be spared to further the work. There is, it is stated, also evidence of iron in that section.

OPERA HOUSE.—Were one to go through the entire range of English-speaking tragedies and legitimate actors not one could be found more fitted by nature to realize Sir E. Bulwer Lytton's Arbaces, the Egyptian in "The last days of Pompeii" than Mr. John Palmer. His commanding gaze, his stately and lofty mien, the sober hues of his sweeping garments, all added to the impressive effect of his quiet countenance peculiarly fit him for the part. The play will be given at the Opera House to-night.

The Midnight Alarm one of the most interesting plays ever presented here will be given at the Opera House, Monday night. The Baltimore American says: "The play is modern, a comedy-drama, strongly realistic in its tendencies. The company is evenly balanced and gives a very strong performance. The scenery and effects, taken collectively, are most complete. The crowning scene of realism given is embodied in the spectacle of the huge trucks, engines and carriages, proceeded by plunging horses rushing pell mell across the stage."

THE HEBREW NEW YEAR.—"Happy New Year," in Hebrew, German, or English, was the greeting exchanged in Hebrew homes yesterday, as the sun sank into the West and there was born the five thousand six hundred and fifty-second year after the creation of the first man. The birth of the New Year found the Washington street synagogue filled with worshippers, for the season is one of the most important in the Hebrew sacred calendar and the members of the various congregations, orthodox or reformer, are few and far between who are not found in their place at divine service on New Year's day and Day of Atonement, ten days later. The spirit of the season found expression in appropriate sermons and prayers and in the text of hymns. The services this morning were marked by the blowing of the ram's horn and by appropriate music. The stores of all our Jewish citizens were closed during the day. Services were held in the synagogue at ten o'clock this morning and will also be held next Friday.

POLICE REPORT.—Last night was clear, cool and cloudy with four prisoners and two lodgers at the station house.

Justice Thompson disposed of the following cases:
 George Peverill, James T. Smith and Isiah Parker, arrested for obstructing the street and for disorderly conduct, were fined $5 each.
 Virginia Day, charged with disorderly conduct, was fined $2.50.
 A colored boy, for worrying and striking another boy of his own color, was fined $1.50.
 A colored woman, for disorderly conduct on the street, was fined $2.50.
 A sailor, for striking a colored man with a lump of ice, was fined $5.

THE MARKET this morning was well supplied. The average number of country people were in attendance and the buyers numerous. Prices ranged as follows: Beef 61.8c; veal 12.15; lamb 12.20; pork 10a15; lima beans 12.15 per quart; snap beans 20 per peck; cuttings 4.8 per head; onions 50 60 per peck; egg plants 5a8 a piece; tomatoes 4.5 per quart; Irish potatoes 20.25 per peck; sweet potatoes 20.25 per peck; corn 8a12 per dozen; butter 20a30 per lb; eggs 22.25 per dozen; rock fish and trout 25.35 per bunch.

THE ALEXANDRIA LIBRARY.—As the public school committee on the reopening of the Alexandria library is anxious for the cooperation of other citizens in that enterprise, it has been suggested that all who wish to co-operate in the opening of the library and reading room at the Peabody building every evening as a place of quiet resort for young and old, shall send their names, by postal or otherwise, to Mr. Wm. F. Carne, the chairman of the committee, at 708 King street, in order that they may be invited to a conference with the committee on the subject.

STRUCK WITH A LUMP OF ICE.—A sailor employed on the schooner Joale Burt, now unloading ice at Bead's wharf, was arrested yesterday at the instance of a colored man who charged him with striking him with a lump of ice. The colored man's statement, as well as those of the witnesses he had summoned, was to the effect that while the complainant was on the chute, the sailor, who was in the hold of the vessel, threw a lump of ice which struck him on the side of the head, cutting and bruising him. The sailor was fined $5 by Mayor Strauss.

FARMERS AT MARKET.—The District of Columbia commissioners made an order yesterday afternoon to the effect that "it shall be in the power of the clerk to require each farmer or gardener attending the Washington Centre Market to keep clean the space allotted to him, either by cleaning the same before leaving or paying the watchman appointed by the clerk a reasonable amount to have it cleaned, not to exceed ten cents for a one-horse wagon and fifteen cents for a two-horse wagon."

NOVEL BET.—It is said that two gentlemen employed at the Midland depot made a bet on the result of Wednesday's election, in which it was stipulated that the winner was to be wheeled in a barrow from the foot of King street to Hoff's run at an early hour to-night. The loser is reported to have made his arrangements for paying the wager, and will be on hand with his wheelbarrow at the point named and at the hour designated.

RECEPTION.—The Society of Christian Endeavor of Maryland Avenue Presbyterian Church Baltimore, gave a reception last night in the lecture-room of the church to the new pastor, Rev. Joseph A. Vance, and his wife. The occasion was a joyous one. Mr. Vance is a brother of the former pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church in this city.

TAX SALE.—The City Council on July 28 last, ordered a tax sale of property upon which taxes were due and unpaid to June 1, 1891. The collectors have prepared their list which will be published in the GAZETTE, beginning Wednesday next, Oct. 7. Tax sale does not include any property which has been sold previously and not redeemed.

There will be a meeting of the representatives of the several fire companies this afternoon to consider the rules recently adopted by the Fire Wardens.

REV. MR. VANCE IN NORFOLK.—Rev. J. I. Vance, formerly of this city, was installed pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Norfolk last night at 8 o'clock. Dr. Hoge presided and preached. Rev. Dr. Kerr, of Richmond, charged the pastor and Dr. Armstrong the people. The service was impressive and interesting.

AN ALEXANDRIA BARD.—Mr. George Nowland, formerly a member of Council from the First ward, has composed a song, entitled "The Force Bill Laid Aside," and has had it set to music and copyrighted. He will soon place it in the hands of the printer.

THE STEAMER ALTON, owned by L. Ledman, and which was burned last December has been rebuilt at Occoquan. She was launched Thursday, and will be on her route between the above named place, this city and Washington in a few days.

SEWER COMPLETED.—The sewer from Henry to Washington street, which has been in course of construction for several weeks past, has been completed, and is pronounced a creditable piece of work by those calculated to be judges.

The Firemen's Parade.

The firemen's procession at Atlantic City yesterday was a fitting culmination of the festivities of the week. Seven States were represented—Maryland, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Virginia, New York, Connecticut and Rhode Island. Besides the fire were representatives from Washington, D. C. From 2,500 to 3,000 firemen were in the line, which took nearly an hour to pass. Most of the companies had apparatus. The two Virginia companies, the Hydraulics Steam Fire Company No. 3, of Alexandria, George W. Petty, foreman, and Independent Fire Company, No. 1, of Portsmouth, Frederick Weisdorf, foreman, were assigned to the second division. Both companies were attractive in their showy uniforms and brought out favorable comments.

A HORSE THIEF SHOT.—A desperate horse thief known as Dr. H. S. Darwin, alias Herbert Spencer, is now in the Middleburg, Snyder county, Pa., jail, under a detainer filed by Chief of Police Amour, of Shenandoah. Darwin is wanted for horse stealing. On Sunday night last he was heard of at Middleburg, and was traced to Mount Pleasant; he defied the posse, and shot one of the officers in the thigh. Another officer put a charge of buckshot in the desperado's right arm. The limb was shattered, and hung by shreds from the shoulder. Darwin surrendered. He is in a critical condition, but should he recover he will be brought for trial.

If you want to have your baby healthy and beautiful, four things are necessary: Fresh air, good food, bright sunshine and Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup.

With the greatest confidence we can say, there is no better remedy for catarrh, than Old Bull's Catarrh Cure. Price only 25 cents.

A Card.

I wish to say positively and unequivocally that the mean, malicious and sensational stories in circulation in connection with Earl Van Anken are without foundation in fact. No checks were raised, no checks written or passed; not a cent of money is missing or taken, as far as he is concerned, here or elsewhere. He was in Atlantic City, registered at a well known hotel (where my family are known) under his own name. He was simply there on his way to boarding school where he is to be. Under legal advice I give notice that I shall certainly prosecute parties who continue to circulate any such mean, lying, cowardly statements.

F. L. VAN ANKEN.

False Economy

Is practiced by many people, who buy inferior articles of food because cheaper than standard goods. Surely infants are entitled to the best food obtainable. It is a fact that the Gail Borden "Eagle" Brand Condensed Milk is the best infant food. Your grocer and druggist keep it.

I HAVE been a great sufferer from catarrh for over ten years; had it very bad, could hardly breathe. Some nights I could not sleep and had to walk the floor. I purchased Ely's Cream Balm and am using it freely, it is working a cure surely. I have advised several friends to use it, and with happy results in every case. It is the medicine above all others for catarrh, and it is worth its weight in gold. I thank God I have found a remedy I can use with safety and that does all that is claimed for it. It is entering my desires.

 J. B. Wilson, 371 Clay St., Sharpsburg, Pa., says he will not be without Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Cough and Cold, that it cured his wife who was threatened with pneumonia after an attack of "La Grippe," when various other remedies and several physicians had done her no good.
